YOU ARE A STAR
ANTONETTE GOROCH

Antonette Goroch (Oakland, CA/Bologna, Italy) is a seasoned traveler and musician, with two decades of recordings and writings to her credit. A mother, organizer, futurist and occasional farmer, Antonette is known for her revolutionary spirit, captivating vocals and love of wordplay. She delivers songs rooted in the specificity of place and time, but resonant in universal truths, and an underlying belief in the ability of art to unite and liberate. Her songs range from stripped down, punk folk garage anthems to melodic, blues driven folk ballads infused, with eastern European mountain music. Her work reflects her American and San Francisco Bay Area origins but also, in the tradition of many a wandering minstrel, her years of absorbing stories and experiences on the road. Her most recent recording, You Are a Star, was released on limited edition vinyl by Aerobic International and Ragazzaccia Records in November 2015, and received airplay and critical acclaim, including a "top Bay Area pick" from the Oakland Tribune during the SXSW music festival in 2016.

"This Oakland artist's music – a bold mix of folk, pop and other styles – is every bit as compelling as her bio. She's blessed with a gorgeous voice, which lingers in your mind long after you hear it."

—Jim Harrington, Oakland Tribune Feb 24, 2016

"The term "singer/songwriter" describes only one small facet of the full artistic picture that is Antonette Goroch."

—Spinesis Feb. 2, 2016 San Francisco, CA
